

Friday Night

MURDER CLUB

CAIN'S JAWBONE

Join us in trying to solve “Cain’s Jawbone” by Torquemada.

‘Is it a book?
Is it a puzzle?
Whatever the classification,
one thing that is for sure,
is it is a nearly “unsolveable” murder mystery.

NEARLY!

100 pages.
6 murders.
6 murderers.

Join us this summer as we move the pages around the wall, seeking to solve this great mystery!

Summer Fridays @ Espressions: Coffee & Community 5:30-6:30 p.m.

Each Friday this summer, we’ll join together to move the pages around, discuss clues, and see if we can solve the puzzle! All are welcome to stop in and participate. The “crime board” will be hung up in the Espressions back room, should you stop in during the week too!

Having a copy of “Cain’s Jawbone” is suggested but not required. We will have copies available for $10 at the shop.

We hope you’ll consider joining us for the fun this summer!
